LEADER SAYS WORK ON TOWN CENTRE WILL START IN JANUARY

Report by Henry James

Council chief moves to allay fears about scheme after developer abandons project in neighbouring borough

THE leader of West Lancs Council has moved to allay fears over the possibility of the regeneration plans for Skelmersdale town centre being cancelled or delayed after developer St Modwen decided to abandon its plans for neighbouring Kirkby town centre.

Councillor Ian Moran said the Kirkby scheme was different to the Skelmersdale project which he claimed would start early in the new year.

Concerns were raised when it was announced that St Modwen, who are also behind the plans for Skelmersdale, had agreed to transfer 87 shops and 12.4 acres of land in Kirkby into the ownership of Knowsley Council at a cost of £43m.

The authority reportedly had decided to act after "20 years of failed attempts from the private sector to progress with development in Kirkby."

St Modwen had bought the land from Tesco for £36m in 2015 and had lined up contractor GMI to deliver the scheme. But there had been little sign of work starting on the site.

Knowsley Council leader Graham Morgan has been critical of St Modwen and said they had been "extremely cautious" to proceed. He added that they had, "waited too long for work to begin" in Kirkby.

It has also been suggested that St Modwen are now opting to 'move away from owning town centre sites.'

In West Lancs the borough council in October voted through recommendations to drive forward with the physical delivery of the regeneration. The authority has also secured £2m in funding from the Lancashire Enterprise Fund, which will be spent only on the Skelmersdale town centre project.

The computer generated image released by St Modwen that showcases the Skelmersdale town centre scheme highlighting the location of anchor stores Lidl and B&M.

However, following the Knowsley announcement, doubts about the Skelmersdale scheme resurfaced. One resident, who wishes to remain anonymous, commented: "St Modwen has held the town of Skelmersdale for ransom for years, even going to court over a cinema."

Councillor Moran remained upbeat though. He told the Champion: "The Knowsley announcement will have no impact whatsoever on the Skelmersdale scheme. Work is due to start in mid-January."

Lucy Coughlen with Alan Lewis'

Lucy's a contender for county's Young Citizen Award

A SKELMERSDALE youngster has been entered into the Lancashire's Young Citizen Awards 2020.

Lucy Coughlen, 12, has been nominated for her role with Skelmersdale Action For Youth at the Evermoor Hub in Digmoor where she has been a junior leader for the last three years.

She is also a leader at the Little Monsters Club in Tanhouse, where she helps to get young people off the streets and engaged in positive activities.

Lancashire's Young Citizen Awards 2020 is open to someone aged under 21 who has done something selfless for another person, organisation or their local community.

A pupil at Our Lady Queen of Peace school, Lucy was nominated by Alan Lewis, the chairman of the Skelmersdale Veterans' Association. Alan said: "Lucy deserves recognition for the work that she has done with Skelmersdale Action For Youth and for helping us with the Poppy Appeal."

The winner and runners-up will be selected by the High Sheriff and a panel of judges from the Lancashire Partnership Against Crime (LANPAC), Lancashire Constabulary, the University of Central Lancashire and former High Sheriff, Rodney Swarbrick, who initiated the award.

There will be a presentation at Lancashire Constabulary headquarters in March 2020 where the winner will receive £500 along with a specially-commissioned trophy and certificate. Two runners-up will receive £100 and a certificate.

Eight days of strikes underway at Edge Hill

Teaching, research and library staff walk out in row over pensions, pay and working conditions

Report by Henry James

Edge Hill University.

EIGHT days of strike action began on Monday at Edge Hill University.

The action involves teaching, research and library staff and comes after no agreement could be reached between university representatives and the University and College Union (UCU) over pensions, pay and working conditions.

Striking staff have organised picket lines at the main entrance to Edge Hill, a car park on St Helens Road and an entrance to the university on Ruff Lane.

Last month, UCU members backed strike action in ballots over pensions and pay and working conditions, including universities' failure to make improvements on equality, casualisation and workloads.

The results mean that UCU members at 60 UK universities have walked out this week.

At Edge Hill University 75% of members polled backed strikes.

As well as eight strike days, union members are beginning 'action short of a strike' from Monday. This involves working strictly to contract, not covering for absent colleagues and refusing to reschedule lectures lost to strike action.

UCU North West regional official Martyn Moss said: "Strike action is a last resort, but universities' refusal to deal with these key issues have left us with no alternative. It is staggering and insulting that universities have not done more to work with us to try and find a way to resolve these disputes.

"We hope students will continue to put pressure on university vice-chancellors to get their representatives back round the negotiating table for serious talks with the union."

An Edge Hill University spokesperson told the Champion: "The University and Colleges Union is in dispute with employers over a pay award that is negotiated nationally. This is a national dispute and cannot be resolved at a local level by us. We are aware that UCEA continues to talk to the UCU in the hope of finding a solution to the national dispute.

"Edge Hill is committed to supporting students and is ensuring that teaching and learning opportunities are disrupted as little as possible. Wherever possible, teaching sessions will run during the period of the industrial action and we are taking all steps to minimise the impact on students."

The opening of the community-based craft market at the Concourse.

New craft market off to flying start

THE official opening of new community-based craft market, #Made In WN8, Skelmersdale's Makers Market, on Friday, November 22, has been hailed a success.

The market aims to showcase and nurture the skills, talents and causes of the residents who live in the WN8 postcode area.

#Made in WN8 will be based at the community kiosk at the centre every Friday and Saturday until Christmas and then once per month afterwards.

The scheme is a joint venture between Artisan Partisan and Celebrate Skelmersdale.

Founded by Cath Carmichael, Artisan Partisan is an 'ethical' clothes-making company based in Skelmersdale, while Celebrate Skelmersdale, founded by Claire Cooper, promotes the work of individuals in the town.

Cath and Claire said: "We are in the very fortunate position of having already outgrown the space that the Concourse has kindly provided us and we are currently negotiating for a bigger venue in the centre with them.

"How wonderful to be able to stage a sizeable makers market in the run-up to Christmas in the heart of Skelmersdale!

Support

"We now have 17 makers on our books, with more coming on board every day.

Any enquiries from individuals requiring stalls should contact the #Made In WN8 facebook page. The market runs from 9am till 5pm every Friday and Saturday up to Christmas"

Cath and Claire would like to thank Paula Gamester for officially opening the #Made In WN8 Skelmersdale Makers Market. Paula is a resident of Skelmersdale and founder of the Sewing Rooms and Social Enterprise Champion 2019.

They added: "We would also like to thank the Concourse management and the existing businesses in the Concourse for their overwhelming support for this project."

As the founder of this project and an SSE fellow, Cath hopes that #Made In WN8 will continue to have the help of the Well Skelmersdale Project and the school of Social Entrepreneurs. Cath and Claire commented: "It is clear that the market can forge sympathetic links with other community groups in the town who are dedicated to the well being of Skelmersdale residents and the improvement of the environment."

Council chief says work on new town centre scheme will start in January

"Plans are being finalised. Work was due to start earlier but there has been a delay due to finalising a deal with Homes England and because of the General Election.

"We know that St Modwen are moving away from town centre projects and into warehousing schemes, but that will not affect the Skelmersdale scheme.

"The West Lancashire scheme is different to the Knowsley project as St Modwen will be building it on our behalf.

"These are exciting times. As a resident myself, I understand the frustrations people feel over the length of time it has taken to deliver this project.

"However we are finally getting there. I am looking forward to showing the scheme to people who have said: 'I'll believe it when I see it.'

"As well as the shops, there will be a public open space where we will be able to hold events. It will include a park where people will be proud to bring their children.

"We are also working closely with LCP, who are the owners of the Concourse as well."

St Modwen has been contacted for comment.

Recycling specialists aim to improve efficiency with new electronic tracking system designed by Skem company

A MAJOR UK waste recycling business is switching to an RFID (radio frequency identification) based system designed by a Skelmersdale company to make its oil waste collection more efficient.

Augean PLC, which serves more than 2,000 clients nationwide using its specialist 'Hipod' collection bin, is implementing the new tailored system from CoreRFID at the West Lancs Investment Centre on White Moss Business Park .

From its headquarters in Wetherby, Augean operates a further 12 sites across the UK which will use the technology to track and analyse collections. The company's 'Hipod' bins are collected when they are full and the oil-contaminated waste they contain is transported to authorised facilities, treated and the containers are used again.

The new system will enable Augean to track its bins by scanning RFID tags embedded in them from pick-up to their return, and the information will be automatically downloaded into a stand-alone database which can be viewed via the Internet.

Augean is a leader in sustainable and compliance-led hazardous waste management for challenging sectors such as engineering, petro-chemical manufacture and radioactive waste producers.

Paul Lealman, head of operations (waste) at Augean PLC, commented: "All records were maintained manually on paper and it offered very little control over the asset base. The new RFID tracking gives us full visibility of our operations. This visibility gives the business a greater understanding of the sales cycle for each client and will enable us to plan and work much more effectively.

"It also removes the chore of manual tracking for our drivers. Electronic signatures will now be used as proof of delivery and inspection which will generate a cost saving right from the start."

CoreRFID's technical director, Munz Ali, commented: "Our RFID solutions aim to bring more automation and accuracy to users, which in turn delivers real business benefits and a truly competitive advantage, especially in logistics roles."

Key appointments at award-winning 'eco' packaging company

Report by Henry James

A 'SIZEABLE investment' has enabled award-winning Skemersdale-based sustainable secondary packaging specialist, TrakRap to make two new key appointments as it seeks to pursue ambitious growth plans.

Steve Crane has joined the company in Gorsey Place, East Gilibrands as business development manager. His role will involve winning new sales opportunities and introducing TrakRap's low carbon secondary packaging system to organisations in the fast-moving consumer goods (FMCG) industry.

Having held engineering and sales roles in the industry for more than 30 years, he joins TrakRap from packaging machinery manufacturer, Adpak, where he spent 20 years as area sales manager maintaining successful relationships with some of the UK's biggest brands, including Asda-George and Superdry.

Meanwhile packaging projects manager Amy Clark joins from corrugate giant Saica, where she spent three years as a design engineer with responsibilities including managing packaging projects and materials testing.

Steve Crane who has joined TrapRak as business development manager.

At TrakRap, Amy will help deliver innovative and cost-effective packaging solutions to the company's wide range of food and drink manufacturing customers, managing packaging design projects from conception to production.

TrakRap CEO, Martin Leeming, said: "Since securing more than £1 million in investment through a Northern Powerhouse funding programme, we've been looking for the perfect candidates to grow our team and enable us to expand the business, so we're delighted to have Steve and Amy on board.

Knowledge

"Steve's wealth of experience in the packaging industry and proven track record of exceeding challenging sales figures will allow us to expand our customer base, while Amy's design skills and extensive knowledge of retail markets and new materials will ensure we offer our customers the best, most cost-effective packaging solutions to meet their needs."

The TrakRap system is a low carbon, low plastic alternative to shrink-wrapping that uses a 100% recyclable stretch film to wrap products for transit for FMCG manufacturers supplying supermarkets and retailers in the UK.

The system reduces users' carbon footprints by as much as 70% through lower CO2e emissions and significantly reduces plastic and energy consumption.

U3A group welcomes new members

MEMBERS of the Skelmersdale U3A group will be holding Lancashire Day celebrations at their next meeting on Thursday, November 21.

This is at the Ecumenical Centre in Northway starting at 2pm and will feature a Lancashire-themed quiz and refreshments.

New members are always welcome at the group to take part in various activities including singing, walking, reading, local history, gardening, table tennis and darts.

The group meets every other Monday for a coffee afternoon and on the third Thursday of every month they have guest speakers.

The last coffee afternoon of the year will be on Monday, December 9 and will start again on January 6.

The damaged barriers at the A59 which show the corner is prone to accidents.

Authority's pledge to repair damaged safety barriers on busy route

DAMAGED road safety railings at an accident hot spot used by West Lancs commuters travelling into and out of Liverpool will be repaired as soon as possible, say Sefton Council.

Metal roadside railings on both sides of the A59 where it exits Switch Island on the way to the city have been damaged on several occasions recently after being hit by vehicles, reducing the protection offered pedestrians using the crossing.

There have been calls to reduce the speed limit on that stretch of road.

A spokesperson for Sefton Council said: "The council is aware of accidents and damage to the guard rail in this location. In February 2018 the Road Safety Team installed additional chevron signs on the bend to try and reduce vehicle speeds

"The safety of motorists travelling in and around the borough is our main priority and further consideration is being given for additional engineering measures which can help reduce the potential for further accidents in the future.

"In the interim, the damaged railings will be repaired as soon as possible."

The Champion contacted Merseyside Police both regarding the general safety of the A59 at this location and an accident that occurred on the evening of November 7 when a car went through the fence of the Asda store, a few metres further down from the railings. The force said it had no record of the accident. However, it has encouraged people to let them know if they see any incidents.

Paul Mountford, Casualty Reduction Officer at Merseyside Police Safer Roads Unit, said: "Although we're not aware of recent issues at this stretch of road, we're always keen to speak to anyone locally who may have concerns, has been involved in or witnessed an incident which was not reported to police.

"I'd encourage anyone with concerns to contact the police via @MerPol CC or 101, your local authority or MSRP, and we'll take a look."

Families flock to celebrate launch of festive season fun at Concourse

HUNDREDS of people turned out to celebrate the launch of the festive season at the Concourse shopping centre in Skelmersdale at the weekend.

With entertainment galore - including local performers from schools and community organisations, plus special guests, including Santa - there was plenty to keep families and shoppers of all ages occupied.

Elsa and Anna, the stars from Frozen 2, sang to young fans, many of whom clamoured to get selfies, while Bjorn the Bear, The Winter Fairy, The Red Hot Santas, and The Christmas stilt-walkers, entertained families throughout the day around the centre.

Santa also attended the launch, handing out free chocolates to customers and meeting youngsters with their Christmas wish lists, while Max Spielmann reported being busy all day, with customers getting special Christmas photographs.

Jennifer Burnett, marketing manager at the Concourse, said: "It was a really fun day and we've received so much positive feedback from customers who said they enjoyed a great day of different activities.

"Having so many community groups performing alongside the other special guests made the day extra special and I'm pleased that so many people came to support them."

Anyone who had their photograph taken by the Wish FM street team can see the images on the station's online gallery and a winner will be chosen at random for a family ticket to the cinema - with snacks - to see Frozen 2.

As well as the festive activities, the new Hays Travel officially launched in the old Thomas Cook unit, with staff handing out free fizz, cakes and snacks.

Santa will also be visiting the centre throughout December. Exact dates have yet to be confirmed but will be posted on the Concourse Facebook page, Facebook.com/ConcourseShoppingCentre.

In the meantime, youngsters can send their wish list letters in a special post box in the East Square until Christmas Eve, with guaranteed delivery to the North Pole! Father Christmas will write back to anyone posting their letters by December 19 and the collection station will be by the Christmas tree.

Clear-cut win for Labour in Birch Green by-election

SUE Gregson was a clear winner in the West Lancs Council by-election for the Birch Green ward held last Thursday, November 21.

She retained the seat for Labour polling 61% of the vote. The newly-elected Councillor Gregson said: "I would just like to thank the residents of Birch Green. It is an honour to be elected to this position and represent the area in which I live. I look forward to getting on with the work I have promised, giving local residents a voice, improving local facilities and making Birch Green a place to be proud of.

Councillor Sue Gregson.

"We have a lot to look forward to with the long-overdue town centre and new sports centre which the Labour council are now delivering. I look forward to being part of the team helping to shape what these additions will look like and offer local residents to meet our needs.

Council leader, Councillor Ian Moran commented: "I would like to welcome Cllr. Gregson to West Lancashire Borough Council and look forward to working with her and Councillor Carl Coughlan to achieve the improvements they wish to see for Birch Green. Sue has shown herself to be professional, committed and engaging over the course of the by-election campaign, and I expect she will bring those qualities into her role as a councillor."

Cllr. Gregson is keen to signpost residents who use social media to her Facebook group at www.facebook.com/groups/BirchGreenMatters to report local issues. Alternatively they can ring 07450 885 530 or email Sue4BirchGreen@gmail.com.

Birch Green by-election result:
Sue Gregson (Labour) 390 votes (61%)
Andrew Craig Taylor (Skelmersdale Independent Party) 191 (30%)
George Rear (Conservative) 60 (9%).

Friends of Tawd Valley to hold sapling-planting event as part of Woodland Trust's Tree Charter Day

TO coincide with the Woodland Trust's Tree Charter Day, an annual celebration of woods, trees and people held on the last Saturday in November, the Friends of Tawd Valley are holding a tree-planting event in the Tawd Valley Park.

The Woodland Trust campaign 'The Big Climate Fightback' aims to get a million people pledging to plant trees and the Skelmersdale group are hoping the people of the town will help them plant 900 saplings this Saturday, November 30.

A spokesperson for the Friends of Tawd Valley said: "With support from the Countryside Rangers and Friends of Tawd Valley volunteers we aim to plant a 150-metre hedgeline alongside the path leaving Mill Lane down to the fishing pond.

"Once established this hedge will be a very beneficial wildlife habitat sheltering and feeding a host of creatures and, of course, absorbing carbon.

"To plant a bare root sapling we are requesting a minimum donation of £1 per sapling. All proceeds will support the purchase of the trees and the ongoing work of The Friends of Tawd Valley.

"We will be operating on site just above the Mill Lane underpass on Glenburn Road from 10am to 2.30pm."

All necessary equipment will be supplied and there will be hot drinks and refreshments available to buy. Warm clothing and boots or wellies are advised.

There is no vehicular access to the site so the group are urging residents to enjoy a short walk from the town centre car parks with access to Mill Lane bridge (over the Tawd) from Inglewhite, Inskip or Irwell.

The Friends of Tawd Valley in action

From the bridge it is a short uphill walk to the planting site.

Alternatively, people can park on Mill Lane/Thornbury and approach via the underpass.

Drivers are asked to park responsibly and with consideration for others.

Village primary school earns top marks for mental health initiatives

Report by Kenny Parker

A WEST Lancs primary school has scooped a top prize at a prestigious regional education awards scheme.

Bickerstaffe CE Primary won the Mental Health & Wellbeing Award - a new category initiated this year - at the Educate Awards 2019, in the face of stiff competition from other shortlisted schools in Liverpool, Knowsley, Sefton, St Helens and Wirral.

Now in its eighth year, The Educate Awards is the largest education awards scheme in the North West and aims to rewarded the excellence of schools in Merseyside, Cheshire, Lancashire and Greater Manchester.

This year's awards ceremony, held at the Liverpool Anglican Cathedral and hosted by broadcaster Simon Ross, was attended by more than 700 guests with a total of 21 awards handed out.

Bickerstaffe CE Primary impressed judges with the unique ways it promotes positive mental health and wellbeing to both pupils, families and staff.

The school in Hall Lane encourages pupils to speak up if they're not feeling quite right and as staff make time to catch up with them each and every day, the children feel at ease to discuss anything that may be troubling them at home or in school.

Other initiatives include hosting a weekly 'Knit and Knatter' club where children can chat with members of the local community. This also gives elderly neighbours the chance to socialise too as the rural location of the village means these pensioners can often feel isolated.

Staff are inspired to leave motivational messages for other members of the team around the school and enjoy regular meditation and yoga sessions in order to relieve stress.

The school also offers counsellor support to all members of the school community.

And school dog Bob visits three times a week to lift the spirits of pupils and staff, spending time with different children who are in some way struggling with school or are feeling emotional, worried or angry.

Head teacher, Maggie Teachen said: "We are delighted to have been named amongst many innovative schools that prioritise the mental health and wellbeing of their pupils, staff and extended school family. It was lovely for our staff to have their endeavours recognised in such a special way."

Kim O'Brien, founder of the Educate Awards, added: "A huge well done to Bickerstaffe CE Primary School on this fantastic award win. We are so proud to host an event which champions the creativity, diversity and dedication of teachers, school support stars, schools and colleges from across the North West."

Rock on! Artz Centre students excel in musical theatre exams

Now it's all systems go in preparation for annual end-of-year production

Report by Henry James

STUDENTS at the Artz Centre in Skelmersdale have been celebrating success in their RSL (Rock School Ltd) musical theatre exam results.

And the award-winning social enterprise in Birch Green certainly had plenty to celebrate as 45 young people arrived to collect the final grades from their '2019 Exam Show' back in September.

The local students, with ages ranging from just four to 19, have spent the best part of the past 10 months working towards a variety of graded levels in the musical theatre qualifications offered by the Artz Centre in collaboration with the accrediting body RSL.

The RSL Musical Theatre Programme offered by the centre is now in its second year and it once again achieved a 100% pass rate!

And the good news didn't end there as 31 of the students entered for examinations this year achieved a 'Pass with Merit' grade while 13 achieved a 'Pass with Distinction,'

A spokesperson for the Artz Centre said: "The show day itself, held at West Lancashire's Hope Theatre in early September, was not just a matter of the local young people delivering high-quality performances throughout the production element.

"They also had to deliver a solo skills tests in acting, dance or music, and participate in a reflective interview of their performance and technical knowledge of theatre practitioners and technique - skills that are sure to set our young people up with the best start in their professional lives, no matter what careers they embark upon."

Journey

Of particular note were outstanding results for Megan Hogarth and Joseph Howard, who this year became the Artz Centre's very first students to undertake the RSL Level 4 Diploma in Performing Arts through the accredited programme.

Both Megan and Joseph passed their Level 4 Diploma Qualification with Merit and Distinction and are looking forward to continuing their RSL journey next year.

Now the Artz Academy students turn their attention to their end-of-year drama production, Elf! The Musical while in January the centre's all-new RSL exam class will start.

Stocks Hall staff and residents receive the gifts from Friends and staff of Skelmersdale Library

Library friends present knitted gifts to nursing home residents

STAFF and friends of Skelmersdale Library presented a range of hand-knitted and hand-decorated gifts to residents at a local care home.

The brightly coloured gifts - including twiddle muffs, patchwork blankets, and greeting cards - were made by ladies of a craft group which meets at the library in Southway along with children from its Saturday club, Syrian refugees and the Friends of Skelmersdale Library group.

And they were gratefully received by residents at the Stocks Hall Nursing Home in White Moss Road.

Sonia Crooks and Janet Rowand from the library worked with members of the craft circle and other customers during Get Creative Week 2019 to make the gifts with help from Jean Warrington of Friends of Skelmersdale Library and Brenda Williams a volunteer at Stocks Hall.

Jean said "Lots of people have been involved in making these gifts. We wanted to give something back to the community and we are delighted to hear they will benefit so many people living at Stocks Hall Skelmersdale Home."

Manager of the home, Sue King, said "We are really grateful to the craft circle for their kindness, time and all the hard work in making these beautiful gifts."

Merseyrail passengers could be on track to face more disruption

Some station platforms may have to be lengthened to accommodate eight-coach formations of new trains

Report by Tom Martin

PASSENGERS on Merseyrail could face a further period of disruption to accommodate the company's new fleet of trains as some station platforms may have to be lengthened.

Services were disrupted earlier this year when stations had to be closed so that platforms could be made higher and wider to reduce the gap when accessing the new trains.

Bus replacement services were introduced while that work took place.

Now Merseyrail has revealed that some station platform will also need to be lengthened because they are too short for the new trains!

It is understood the problems would occur when the trains are formed as eight-coach sets, as the position of points at certain stations, including Liverpool Central and Southport, assumes only six-car sets.

Merseytravel is currently in talks with Network Rail to decide on a date for these works to take place.

'Essential'

It has not yet been confirmed which stations, apart from Southport will be affected.

A Merseytravel spokesperson said: "As part of the planned infrastructure works associated with the new trains being phased in from 2020 on the Merseyrail network, we will be undertaking platform lengthening and signal works at some stations including at Southport.

One of the new Merseyrail trains - platforms at some stations may have to be lengthened to accommodate new eight-coach formations.

"We're working with Network Rail on the plans for these works and will be providing further information once these are finalised.

"As with all engineering works there will be some disruption but we're confident it can be kept to a minimum."

But one unhappy train passenger who contacted the Champion said: "Just when you think all the work has been done people are now finding out they will face more chaos when the station platforms are made longer.

"I think a lot of people would have preferred if all this was done in one big go instead of phased work which feels like continuous disruption."

The height and width upgrades were described as "essential" by Merseytravel earlier this year "to ensure the new trains' sliding step can meet the platform edge." The sliding step will mean passengers can get on and off the train with ease

Heart charity appeal for the 'gift of time'...

Volunteers needed to help out in BHF shops during the busy Christmas period

Report by Henry James

The British Heart Foundation is seeking volunteers to play Santa this Christmas and donate the 'gift of time' by helping out in their charity shops.

OFFICIALS of a national charity are seeking volunteers willing to give the 'gift of time' this Christmas to help raise funds for life-saving research.

The British Heart Foundation is appealing to members of the public in West Lancashire to lend an 'elfing' hand this festive season, by volunteering in their local BHF shop.

Christmas is one of the busiest times of the year for the charity's shops, which raise funds to transform the lives of people living with heart and circulatory diseases, and any help is appreciated - even if it's for just one afternoon a week.

Linda Fenn, head of volunteering at the BHF, said: "Volunteering over the Christmas period is a fantastic way to give back to your local community and be part of a great team. You'll also be helping us to raise vital funds for research into beating heart and circulatory diseases, including heart attack, stroke and vascular dementia.

"Each year heart and circulatory diseases kill around 20,000 people in the North West and currently 930,000 people in the region are living with these conditions. It's essential that we continue to accelerate research into new ways to prevent, diagnose and treat them. Without the generosity of our shop volunteers we wouldn't be able to fund much of this life saving work."

People who would like to volunteer can choose a date that works for them, pop into their local branch to arrange the day and sign up.

And whether you are looking to volunteer as a one-off, pick up a few festive shifts or explore volunteering longer term, the BHF can help discuss all the available options.

At this busy time of year volunteers will be able to help with a wide range of tasks - including sorting donations, speaking to customers and creating festive window displays.

Recent research commissioned by the BHF showed volunteering can improve people's mental health and help them overcome loneliness. It can also make a real difference to their CV, help them meet people from all walks of life and most importantly they will be helping the BHF to beat the heartbreak caused by heart and circulatory diseases.

For more information on how to get involved visit: bhf.org.uk/lend-an-elfing-hand.

The BHF shops in West Lancs are situated at Burscough Street, Ormskirk and in the Concourse shopping centre, Skelmersdale.

Town's sweet speciality goes down a treat with Paul's Tokyo cafe crowd

Report by Kenny Parker

A FORMER Ormskirk resident who now runs a café in Japan says a sweet speciality of his home town is proving a big hit with customers on the other side of the world!

Paul Evans recently showcased the famous Ormskirk gingerbread to a "very enthusiastic" Japanese public attending a British Fair at premier department store Isetan in Tokyo's Shinjuku district.

He and his Japanese wife Ai were invited to participate in the fair due to the popularity of their small café called The Three Little Pigs.

Since opening five years ago, it has built up a growing reputation amongst its mainly Japanese customers for its British home-baking style cakes and biscuits.

Paul and Ai at the British Fair in Tokyo.

'Astonished'

Looking for something special to display at the fair, Paul remembered his love of Ormskirk gingerbread and, with the help of a friend, was put in touch with the Ormskirk Community Partnership Gingerbread Project - home of the Ormskirk Gingerbread Festival.

OCP chairman, Dave Mutch, said: "When we heard from Paul and his story we were delighted to be able to assist with marketing material, photographs from past festivals and some information on the history of Ormskirk."

Paul, a former pupil at the town's St Anne's Catholic Primary and St. Bede's Catholic High schools, added: "On the day of the event we were astonished to have customers queuing around our space and we were kept fully busy.

"The showcard giving information about Ormskirk looked great with many customers curious to know where the town is in relation to more famous cities.

"We also managed to sell out of all our gingerbread - it was amazing and we are sure that plenty more people in Japan now know the name Ormskirk!

"We are also looking forward to continued success with our Ormskirk gingerbread, and of course to promoting the Ormskirk name.

"Our Japanese customers certainly seem to like the gingerbread and it has remained a constant seller ever since."

Man jailed for bottle attack on Edge Hill student outside club

Victim was knocked out and left with deep facial cuts

A 24-year-old man from Ormskirk has been jailed for an assault that left an Edge Hill University student with a broken nose and deep cuts to her face.

Katie MacDonald from Southport, was hit with a bottle following an altercation between two men and her male friend outside the Alpine club in Railway Road, Ormskirk in the early hours of Friday, January 18.

The geography student, 20, was knocked unconscious and then had a seizure and was afterwards taken to Southport Hospital.

Her attacker, Charlie Lawton, of Cottage Lane, pleaded guilty to assault occasioning actual bodily harm and possession of an offensive weapon and was jailed for nine months at Preston Crown Court on Monday, November 18.

His friend, 22-year-old David Moran of Redgate, Ormskirk, pleaded guilty to affray and possession of an offensive weapon in relation to the altercation. He was handed a six-month prison sentence suspended for 18 months.

Peacemaker

The court heard that Katie had been acting as peacemaker between the warring males before she was hit. Lawton claimed he had been assaulted by one of Katie's friends.

Following the incident police issued an appeal to trace the two men.

Katie's mum, Jane, also appealed by posting photos of her daughter on social media.

Speaking to the Champion after the incident, Katie said she had been left with more than physical injuries.

She said: "People sometimes assume just because it looks like three lacerations they will heal and scar and that there is nothing else. But there is also the mental scarring. Hopefully it will settle but I'm finding it so difficult to even go back to Ormskirk, never mind move back into my flat.

Evening of festive music at parish church

ORMSKIRK Parish Church is hosting an evening of festive music and song presented by the Occasional Singers on Friday, November 29.

Starting at 7.30pm, 'The Spirit of Christmas' will feature a variety of seasonal music including the 'Sans Day Carol', 'For unto us a child is born' (Messiah), Christmas carols and the 'Twelve days of Christmas.' There will also be an opportunity to hear the organ solo 'Triumphal March.'

Tickets for the event cost £7.50, which includes festive refreshments.

A spokesperson for the church said: "This is an evening to savour the spirit of Christmas before the chaos of Christmas begins."

For more details contact Mary on 01695 575432 or you can just pay on the door.

Village pub set to serve up free Christmas lunch for elderly community

STAFF at a West Lancs pub are once again laying on a free Christmas lunch for elderly members of the local community.

This year's event at the Red Lion Hotel in Newburgh will be held on Thursday, December 12.

Nichola Scott, assistant manager at the Ash Brow venue, said: "Our free lunch is aimed at bringing together the elderly who would otherwise spend the majority of time alone.

"Loneliness is one of the UK's biggest issues and we are trying to do what we can to try and reduce it within our local community.

"The lunch is free for people to attend, all we ask is that they let us know they will be attending by calling us on 01257 462336.

"We ensure that everyone who attends leaves with a card and gift.

The Red Lion Hotel at Newburgh is hosting a free Christmas community lunch.

"We also have the children from Newburgh Primary School attending to sing some Christmas songs, along with The Skelmersdale Community Singers providing some afternoon entertainment."

And the pub is already planning for next year's lunch by hosting a fundraising event on Sunday, December 22! Starting at 3pm, this will feature Skelmersdale Prize Brass Band performing some Christmas classics and free mince pies and mulled wine or juice will be provided.

Diabetes sufferers urged to take up free flu jab offer at local GPs or pharmacy

DIABETES UK is urging everyone with diabetes to take up the offer of a free flu jab through their local pharmacy or GP.

Data from Public Health England estimates that fewer than half of the 6.4 million people aged 16-65 in high risk groups - which includes people with diabetes - are getting their jab, leaving millions at risk of developing serious complications.

Flu can cause blood sugar levels to rise high - a natural response to fighting infection. But a serious infection can cause blood sugar levels to rise so high that they become dangerous for people with diabetes. This can lead to acute complications, which can often go unrecognised, and can even be fatal.

The vaccine, which every person with diabetes is entitled for free each year, is the most effective protection against flu. Without it, flu can also develop to pneumonia or bronchitis, which might require hospital admission.

It can take up to two weeks for a flu jab to work. That's why it's essential that everyone at high risk of serious illness from flu gets vaccinated as soon as possible to eliminate the risk of life-threatening complications.

Dan Howarth,
Head of Care at Diabetes UK.

A chance to put vulnerable children at heart of Christmas

FAMILIES across the UK are beginning to prepare for festive celebrations, but at Barnardo's our focus is helping and supporting vulnerable children who may be missing out on the joy of Christmas.

This could be because they are leaving care, have been victims of sexual abuse or have mental health issues. That's why we're launching our new Kidsmas campaign to put children at the heart of Christmas.

We're asking people up and down the country to host a Kidsmas Party at home, school, work or with their local community groups to raise money for vulnerable children.

Our free Kidsmas Party packs include games and fun fundraising ideas to help make your gathering a memorable one.

I encourage everybody to get into the Kidsmas spirit this year by hosting a Kidsmas Party. Not only will you have fun, but you'll also help make sure more children are happy, safe and cared for this Christmas.

You can download or order your free pack at www.barnardos.org.uk/joinkidsmas

Thank you for your support.

Steve Oversby, Director for Barnardo's North.

Help light up the lives of pets in need

PDSA is a vital lifeline for pets and owners, saving thousands of sick and injured pets' lives every year and keeping families together.

But with no government funding, we need your help to take care of precious pets in need of urgent treatment this Christmas.

Our devoted vet teams will treat over 41,000 much-loved pets this December including fixing broken bones, treating chronic conditions and relieving suffering and pain. If it wasn't for us, many of these much-loved pets wouldn't get the care they desperately need and deserve.

It's only with your donations that we can help keep best friends side-by-side this Christmas. Pet lovers can support our #SaveAStar appeal by visiting www.pdsa.org.uk/stars where you can read real life stories about pets we've saved and cared for.

■ PLEASE note: All views and opinions expressed in letters to the editor are solely those of the authors.

FIRSTLY, I'd like to thank the many residents who have written to me and to the Champion about their experiences, especially with Amazon Prime scams. We hope that my replies have been useful.

Just a quick reminder of our CAB advice when dealing with unknown callers, including those to our doorsteps:

Talk to us, your neighbours and your friends if you have any worries about approaches made to you by people you do not know, who ask for personal information, such as bank details, pin numbers, national insurance numbers etc.

I have previously warned readers about doorstep callers. There have recently been a number of reports of doorstep callers claiming to be ex-offenders trying to turn their lives around and trying to aggressively sell household items.

However, it has been claimed by some residents that when they fail to secure a sale they are resorting to spitting on residents' windows and cars and making threats against their pets lives.

Our advice - and that of the police - is "Do not open the door to a stranger, use a door chain if one is available when answering the door. If there is not a door chain, ask the caller who they are through the door before opening it.

You are advised to report doorstep sellers operating without a pedlar's certificate to Trading Standards and also to the police, particularly if the cold caller acts in an aggressive or threatening manner.

If the items are not wanted, tell the cold caller and re-enter the house. Never be pressured into buying something not wanted and never let a cold caller into the house.

Police advice also, is to have a chain fitted to your front door and when someone you don't know is knocking, do not release the door chain until you are satisfied that the caller is a friend or someone known to you. I have been watching 'Cold Call' this week on Channel 5. It is about scamming and trying to recoup money stolen by phone scams.

It showed how phone callers are trained to extract personal information from their victims by encouraging co-operation and trying to recoup money stolen by phone scams. On a separate note, we are approaching Black Friday.

In the last year, Citizens Advice consumer service has dealt with almost half a million consumer-related issues like faulty washing machines, undelivered parcels and fake designer goods. Over 50,000 of these were during November 2018, by far the busiest month for the consumer service.

Black Friday and Cyber Monday mark the busiest shopping weekend of the year. If you're worried that something you've seen online might be a scam, you can contact and get advice with a Citizens Advice Scams Action adviser by calling 0300 330 3003.

Trading Standards can also be contacted if you have any problems with Black Friday purchases. Citizens Advice Sefton has a general telephone service on 0344 493 0012, or you can visit either of our local advice centres. Opening days and times are shown on our website http://sefton-cab.org.uk/our-services.html

For our readers in West Lancashire, Citizens Advice West Lancashire can be contacted at their advice centre in Unit 47, Concourse Shopping Centre, Skelmersdale which is open Monday to Friday 9.30a.m to 4p.m (telephone 0344 245 1294).

You can also report to Action Fraud on 0300 123 2040 or online at www.actionfraud.police.uk.

Gravestone recognition at last for sailor injured in Battle of Jutland

Report by Kenny Parker

A BURSCOUGH sailor who was injured in the Battle of Jutland, the biggest naval clash of the First World War, finally has a gravestone in the village's St John The Evangelist RC Church - thanks to the efforts of local military historian Richard Houghton.

Although stoker Henry Rockliffe is buried in the graveyard of the church in Chapel Lane and commemorated in a stained glass window, there was previously no gravestone as it's not known exactly where his grave is.

An application for recognition for him to the Commonwealth War Graves Commission was refused because he did not die in active service.

However, Richard Houghton, secretary of the Lathom & Burscough Military Heritage Society, believed that Henry should be recognised as he had died in 1918, aged just 24, from a kidney disorder believed to have been caused by medication he was taking for osteoarthritis, almost certainly developed because of injuries sustained in the battle.

Henry was serving on HMS Lion, the Royal Navy's flagship battlecruiser, when it had to be taken out of the conflict after its turret was hit by a shell - killing or wounding all on board.

Now with the help of family historian Paullne Rimmer, he is recognised in a new memorial along with younger brother Charles who was captured by the Japanese in the Second World War. He died in captivity, aged 25, and is buried at the Chungkai War Cemetery in Thailand.

Reverend Leo Daley and pupils from St John's Catholic Primary School at the dedication service for the Rockcliffe brothers' gravestone memorial.

The gravestone was dedicated by parish priest Reverend Leo Daley at a short ceremony attended by children from St John's Catholic Primary School, and the brothers' great-niece, Nita Hogg.

Richard Houghton was puzzled by the war graves commission's refusal to recognise Henry, pointing out that many servicemen who died of the flu in 1919 while part of the occupying army in Germany and France are listed with the CWGC, even though they saw no action.

He said: It's a no-brainer that Henry's joints would have been damaged by the impact of the turret explosion as well as the numerous shells that hit HMS Lion. These would have flung men all over the place - especially stokers in the bowels of the ship."

The new gravestone for brothers Henry and Charles Rockcliffe.

Private baby scan business featured on reality TV show

AN award-winning private baby scan service in West Lancashire has been featured on a reality TV show.

Based at Burscough Wharf, My Baby Scan was set up two years ago by friends Amanda Stewart, Julie Mitchell and Alison Higham who are all NHS-trained sonographers.

The company, which offers services including baby massaging and baby first aid, as well as a scanning service for women at various stages of pregnancy, recently featured on MTV's Teen Mom UK, which follows the lives of five British teenagers coming to terms with motherhood. Programme star Amber Butler was filmed at My Baby Scan where she underwent a scan to find out how many weeks pregnant she was and then returned twice - once to make sure her baby was OK following a miscarriage scare.

Company director Amanda Stewart said: "Amber came to us for three scans in total and by the third one I think we'd almost forgotten the cameras were there.

"It was also great for the business to be featured on TV and many clients have since commented on it."

New borough task force makes five arrests in first week

Report by Henry James

THE new West Lancs Neighbourhood Task Force launched this month has already made its mark.

Made up of four officers, the force is aimed at tackling local priorities including drug-dealing, antisocial behaviour and burglary, alongside disrupting organised crime group activity and targeting outstanding offenders.

And its very first week of operating saw five wanted suspects arrested in connection with a number of offences including wounding, drug offences and possession of firearms, including an electronic conductivity device disguised as a torch.

The task force also assisted South Division's Target Team in the arrest of a wanted man who rammed a police vehicle and vehicles belonging to members of the public in an attempt to evade arrest.

The electronic conductivity device disguised as a torch which was seized by police.

Patrols

He has since been charged with dangerous driving, driving while disqualified and other driving offences.

A spokesman for Lancashire Police said: "Despite being very busy with these arrests they have also been conducting hi-visibility patrols in some of our antisocial behaviour hotspots.

"The officers' tasking will continue to be intelligence-led. Much of this intelligence comes from the public so please continue to tell us about people dealing drugs or engaging in crime in your areas."

The new team's aim is to reconnect with communities across Lancashire and get back to proactive policing and dealing with community concerns.

Superintendent Karen Edwards, who oversees policing in West Lancashire, said: "The task force will be a welcome addition to policing in the area and I hope it will provide some reassurance to our local communities."

People can report crime via 101, or anonymously through Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

University launches podcast for art lovers

Interviews offer chance to share anecdotes and key moments in lives of influential figures in the creative and cultural sectors

EDGE Hill University has launched a new podcast for art lovers.

The Lonely Arts Club podcast is a series of interviews with creative and cultural people, discovering their journey into the arts and where it's led them.

Introduced by Director of the Institute for Creative Enterprise (ICE), Martin McQuillan, the guests share some never-heard-before anecdotes, funny stories and sentimental moments.

Roz Power, the podcast's editor and producer, and the first voice you hear as you tune into the recordings, said: "The Lonely Arts Club gives us a chance to share the interesting lives, key moments and successes of people in the arts sector, in a way that the public wouldn't usually be able to, and all at a time that suits them."

Launched on Spotify on Tuesday, November 19, the first episode delves into the life of director, screenwriter, and bassist in Liverpool-based band The Farm, Carl Hunter. The 30-minute programme includes his first feature film Sometimes Always Never – starring Bill Nighy – his career in the music industry and his love for homemade soup!

The Lonely Arts Club is a new podcast from Edge Hill University aimed at art lovers.

Insight

Carl candidly tells Martin the reason behind the name of the film, which is an adaptation of Frank Cottrell Boyce's short story Triple Word Score. "If you're trying to remember the title, the best way to remember it is, if you're a mod and you've got a three-button suit; you fasten the top button, the second button but never the bottom.

"And that will give you the 'sometimes always never' rule - a crucial bit of information for a man who likes a three-button suit and is a bit of a mod."

Other episodes include an intimate insight into the life of Angela Samata, the arts professional and presenter of BAFTA-nominated BBC1 documentary Life After Suicide. Martin speaks to Angela about the charity work she has done since her partner took his own life, including her time as chair of Survivors of the Bereaved by Suicide.

For more information on The Lonely Arts Club and to listen to the podcast, visit www.edge-hill.ac.uk/ice/thelonelyartsclubinfo

Martin Mere news

Inspiring Generations at Martin Mere Wetland Centre

At Martin Mere, winter is the most exciting time to visit as the centre becomes a haven for wintering wildlife. Winter is also a perfect time for a school visits as there are so many different things for children to see and do. Our Education Team offer a wide range of learning sessions for primary school children of all ages to introduce children to birds and nature and inspire them from an early age.

All the ducks around the grounds are in their brightest breeding plumage and starting their wonderful (and noisy!) displays for the next breeding season. We also have thousands of swans and geese from Iceland and other frozen Northern countries. We feed them every day on the nature reserve until they are ready to migrate back to their nesting grounds in the Arctic. During school sessions, you can see all these amazing birds close-up and even feed some of them by hand.

One of our most popular school sessions during January and February is the session about migration. On our reserve, numbers of wild whooper swans which have migrated over from Iceland have built up to over 2,000 at this time, making our winter sessions extremely engaging for children. Our Education Team also deliver most of our other sessions around science and geography themes, such as animal adaptations, the life of birds and how they are different from us, the water cycle and more. These sessions tie in with the national curriculum, making sure the children are getting the most from their visit.

We currently have a number of offers available for school trips so it's a great time to book. Schools who have visited us for free in the past are eligible for a 25% discount on trips (before the end of March 2020). If your school is within approximately 8 miles of the centre, we can help arrange cheaper transport to and from your school for the trip.

If you'd like to speak to us in more detail about our school visits, give us a call on 01704 891244 to.
For more details about the learning sessions we offer, please visit our Learning Zone website:

Plans for nature reserve to be 'major wildlife centre'

Report by Kenny Parker

A NATURE reserve on the border of West Lancs and Sefton is to be put on the regional wildlife map with plans to create a 'welcome centre' for visitors with a facility to be available for schools and community groups.

Lancashire Wildlife Trust (LWT) plans to build the facility at Lunt Meadows Nature Reserve and it says it will make it a "regionally significant" wildlife centre.

Formerly farmland, the site between Lunt Village and Homer Green was purchased by the Environment Agency in 2008 to be used as a flood reserve for the River Alt.

It has also been managed as a nature reserve by the LWT since 2012.

Described by LWT as a "spectacular reserve "brimming with brilliant birdlife", it has proved popular with nature lovers with about 30,000 visitors a year enjoying its tranquility and wild character.

Below: What the proposed visitor centre will look like.

Workshops

The LWT is now seeking to put the reserve firmly on the map by creating a Welcome Centre which could be used by schools and wildlife enthusiasts. It could additionally host workshops and training courses, for the public, community groups and volunteers.

There will also be offices for four staff to keep the nature reserve running on a daily basis, with toilets, a visitor reception area with self-service 'Grab and Go' food offer, and a kitchen area.

The planning application to Sefton Council states: "Whilst already of regional significance for wildlife, Lunt Meadows and its habitats are still very recent and very much developing.

"Despite limited infrastructure, visitor use has grown to an estimated 30,000 visits per year, with a survey of 2017 identifying wildlife as the main motivation of visitors to the site."

The survey also identified the tranquil and 'wild' nature of Lunt Meadows as something unique to the site and which visitors felt was very important to protect as the reserve is developed.

"The vision for Lunt Meadows is to develop the site as a regionally significant wetland nature reserve."

The application states that the site will be a stronghold for water vole and all wetland wildlife, as well supporting breeding and wintering wetland birds and a diverse array of wildlife.

During its creation, mesolithic archaeology was also unearthed within the site, which has proved to be of national significance and subject to further excavation by the National Museum Liverpool.

The planning application states that it will provide a resource for schools teaching about the stone age, as well as about nature.

LWT says that it is currently seeking funding including through the National Heritage Lottery Fund.

The design has been carried out by Rural Accommodations which designed and built the café and bird hide at Martin Mere in Burscough.

Library events to mark Lancashire Day

LIBRARIES across the county are celebrating Lancashire Day today (Wednesday, November 27), with a events to mark the occasion.

Lancashire Day dates back to 1295, when the county sent its first representatives to Parliament.

A short film, Hit the North, celebrating the voices and dialects across the county will be available in all libraries through the PNet network. It features artist, Matt Wilkinson, reciting poetry he composed inspired by the people he met and the places he visited while travelling around Lancashire using public transport.

The acclaimed debut novel, The Familiars, written by author, Stacey Halls, from Rossendale, will also be made available as an eBook and eAudiobook with unlimited downloads. The historical fiction book is set at Gawthorpe Hall, Padiham, in 1612 during the Pendle witch trials and is based on the real story of the 12 women who were hanged after being accused of murder by witchcraft.

Ormskirk Library will welcome local historian, Dot Broady-Hawkes, today (Wednesday) from 11.30am to 12.30pm, giving an illustrated talk on the history of West Lancashire and its commerce and industry.

All of the events are free. For more information go to http://bit.ly/lancashireday bit.ly/lancashireday.

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL OF OUR CUSTOMER OLD & NEW
New online brochure www.window-care.co.uk

Black pudding for starters, main course and pudding would suit me just fine!

WELL, here I am again, another year older and still plodding on.

In fact, I'm not at all sure whether I am another year nearer to meeting my maker, or the fact that I have now outlived all of my immediate family - neither of which accomplishments I really want to celebrate - or another year wiser (which I doubt), or just another year older, which is, I suppose, something of a triumph in itself.

Mind you, not publicising the true date of my birth does have its drawbacks.

None but a very few send me greetings cards.

I got just three - though if you count the signatures on the card I got (along with several prezzies) from my colleagues in Champion Towers in Southport, I suppose you could say I received several more.

The one card I really treasure though came from Viv and Mike Penn, who run the truly excellent Maghull Young Adults' Social Club.

Many years ago I wrote an article about the formation of the club, which I truly hope helped to get it off to a flying start, and they have remembered my birthday every year since.

I simply cannot remember though why or when I told them my birth date, but thank you very much for your kind thought anyway.

The third card came from two very good friends of mine.

They also invited me to a celebratory birthday dinner at the Weld Blundell pub and restaurant in Lydiate.

And the meal was excellent - but should you decide to eat there, you really should try their black pudding starter.

Honestly I cannot remember tasting anything more delicious in my life. I would have been happy to have it as main course and pud as well!

Anyway, now we have Christmas to look forward to and this year I might - just might - spend it with my doggy pals Tina and Cinders on my river cruiser, Manxman down in deepest Norfolk, ignoring the possibility of ice, snow and of course, rain.

It would certainly be a very different Christmas for me. I have always spent my Christmas among my family in Maghull, apart from my seven years of marriage, and even then we had a quiet Christmas celebration at our Colchester home.

The major stumbling block though to my plans for Christmas afloat could be simply getting there and back.

Being Christmas time my usual transport arrangement, so kindly offered by Wirral YMCA, is not possible, so I would be back with the train.

Being the festive season though, I reckon a few other people might have the same idea, plus the floods which are plaguing much of the route through which I would hope to travel (it is a Magical Mystery Tour of the Peak District and the Fens) the train could well be a tad problematical, to say the least.

Anyway, wearing my Mr Micawber hat, something will turn up - I hope.

Store customers invited to support appeal in aid of rescue centre pets

Donations will help pay for essential vet bills and care costs at Carla Lane Animals in Need over festive period

CUSTOMERS visiting a West Lancs pet store in the coming weeks will be able to contribute to a national appeal to raise funds for pets spending Christmas in a rescue centre.

Over the festive period, Pets at Home Burscough will be taking part in the nationwide fundraiser to help raise money for rescue pets at the Carla Lane Animals in Need centre as part of the annual Santa Paws appeal by Support Adoption For Pets, the UK's largest grant-giving pet charity.

The appeal, which launched on Friday (November 22) and runs until Christmas Eve, is raising money to help pay for essential vet bills and care costs over the festive period.

The team at the Burscough store on the Ringtail Retail Park will be raising money for the centre at Melling, along with other Pets At Home stores across the UK which will be raising funds for other local rescue centres.

The Pets at Home store in Burscough is taking part in the Santa Paws appeal to raise money for rescue pets at the Carla Lane Animals in Need centre at Melling.

The Santa Paws appeal marks the final fundraising event of 2019 for Support Adoption For Pets. Over the course of the year, rescue centres across the UK have been building close relationships with their local Pets at Home stores, working together to raise vital funds for the rescues, kicking off with a summer fundraiser, which raised more than £683,000 in May and June.

Generosity

The team at Pets at Home Burscough will be giving customers the opportunity to support the Santa Paws appeal by simply donating at store tills.

Amy Wilson, Support Adoption For Pets fundraising manager, said: "Every year we are amazed by the generosity of Pets at Home customers and pet owners, and we are delighted to be able to launch the Santa Paws appeal once again.

"We hope that people will spare a moment's thought for those pets who sadly find themselves without a home for Christmas this year. Every donation helps, and giving as little as just 50p can make a huge difference to a rescue pet.

"Sarah Yould, store manager at Pets at Home, Burscough, said: "We're proud and excited to be raising money for Carla Lane Animals in Need as part of this year's Santa Paws appeal and we hope our customers and the people of Burscough will get involved and support us with our fundraising."

UK Charity Week

2nd-8th Dec 2019

#UKCharityWeek is a campaign designed to give people of the United Kingdom an opportunity to place awareness and fundraising for charities high on the national agenda at a time of year when people are statistically at their most giving.

Here is a selection of local charities that would welcome your support with open arms. All worthy causes, these charities have devoted, caring individuals at their helm. If you would like to support them with a donation, or even your time, please do get in touch.

What will you be doing?

How does the Giving Machine work?

The Giving Machine™

TheGivingMachine is a unique registered charity that enables you to generate sale commissions with every online purchase. The Charity converts these commissions into free donations for the schools, charities and other community organisations you choose.

- You join for free and choose up to four causes to support.
- You generate commissions by shopping online (The Giving Machine work with over 1,500 retailers including Amazon, Play.com, John Lewis, eBay, Sainsburys and Next).
- They then convert your commissions into donations for your chosen causes. You are raising funds for free!

Want to learn more on how you can raise funds for free? or if you are a charity add yourself to the list - visit www.thegivingmachine.co.uk

Academics' research shows Victorians were amused!

Exhibition reveals the forgotten history of 19th-century humour

A poster for the exhibition.

RESEARCHERS from Edge Hill University are revealing the forgotten history of Victorian humour as part of the UK's only nationwide humanities festival.

We Are ~~Not~~ Amused at The Atkinson in Southport explores what it took to make a Victorian laugh, from bad puns and nonsense poems to the first stars of stand-up comedy.

Curated by the Ormskirk university's Dr Bob Nicholson, Dr Andrew McInnes and Dr Laura Eastlake, who are all specialists in 19th-century history and literature, this exhibition reveals that contrary to their serious persona the Victorians loved to laugh.

Dr Nicolson said: "We tend to think of the Victorians as a rather dour and humourless bunch but laughter and comedy were actually a really important part of Victorian culture."

Co-curator Dr Eastlake added: "The exhibition also gives a great sense of how the Victorians played with new technologies of the age to make each other laugh.

"You can see photographs, including some of the earliest selfies, the first laughter captured on phonograph and some amazing early film."

A star attraction of the exhibition will be the Great Wall of Jokes, built from hundreds of jokes sourced from The Old Joke Archive - a major new digital archive filled with hundreds of thousands of historical witticisms built in collaboration between Dr Nicolson and The British Library.

It will sit alongside photos, projections, costumes and games, as well as a top hat which belonged to "greatest showman" P T Barnum.

Dr McInnes said: "Southport was a hotbed of humour during its time as a thriving Victorian seaside resort, so the Atkinson is the perfect venue for the exhibition and the exciting comedy events happening at the launch.

The We Are ~~Not~~ Amused exhibition runs until March 2020.

Knowing where your stop tap is can limit burst pipes damage

RESIDENTS are being urged to make sure they know where to find their internal stop tap in case of burst pipes this winter.

Watersafe, the UK's register of approved plumbers, says repair costs following a burst pipe are nearly £9,000 on average - but switching off the water supply at a stop tap can significantly limit damage. And they are encouraging residents to find, check and label their internal stop tap and make this top of their 'to-do' list this winter.

The internal stop tap, sometimes also known as a stopcock or stop valve, should be turned clockwise to turn off the water supply. Common places to find it include under the kitchen sink; a kitchen cupboard; downstairs bathroom or toilet; garage or utility room; cellar; and under the stairs.

County council supports White Ribbon campaign to end male violence against women and girls

LANCASHIRE County Council is taking part in the White Ribbon campaign to end all forms of male violence against women and girls.

Now in its 14th year, the international campaign was launched on White Ribbon Day (Monday, November 25) and aims to raise awareness of physical and mental abuse throughout 16 days of action.

This year's event aims to encourage young men and boys, in particular, to show their support.

The White Ribbon flag will fly above County Hall for the duration of the campaign and more venues - including Skelmersdale library - are displaying the large White Ribbon where you can pick up a badge and sign a pledge to help raise awareness.

Dr Sakthi Karunanithi, Lancashire's director of public health, said: "White Ribbon is about encouraging men never to commit, condone or stay silent about any form of violence or abuse against women and girls. We'd like everyone to pick up a White Ribbon badge at their local library and sign the pledge to help raise awareness of this important issue.

"The campaign this year is focusing particularly on young men aged 14 to 18 and we'd encourage them to come to their local library or visit the White Ribbon website to find out more."

In Lancashire between April 2018 and March 2019, there were more than 24,000 police incidents involving men abusing women. Two women are killed every week in England and Wales by their current or former partner.

For more information about the White Ribbon campaign visit www.whiteribbon.org.uk.

If you or someone you know is suffering from domestic abuse and needs support, contact Lancashire Victim Services via their website www.lancashirevictimservices.org/victims/victim-domestic-abuse/ or call 0303 323 0085.

Burscough bridal boutique scoops regional awards at the double!

Report by Henry James

THE proud owner of an independent bridal boutique in West Lancs is celebrating after scooping two top awards at a prestigious regional event.

Boda Boutique Bridal Gowns & Accessories based at Burscough Wharf were pitted against hundreds of businesses and wedding specialists from throughout the region at the fourth English Wedding Awards 2019 North held in Manchester.

But despite the fierce competition they were crowned winners in the Bridal Boutique & Accessories North West Region category, as well as claiming the trophy in the overall Northern Region against the winners of the North East and Yorkshire sections.

The awards celebrate all that's the best in the whole wedding day experience - from wedding planners, co-ordinators, specialists and caterers, to photographers, videographers, florists and stationery suppliers.

A proud Deborah Fairclough (right) celebrates the double success with mum Laura who is also a member of the winning team at Boda Boutique Bridal Gowns & Accessories.

Delighted

The glitzy event was hosted by presenter, Tabitha Hunter-Smale who presented awards and acknowledged those who strive to promote excellence in the industry and add the fairy-tale sparkle to any wedding.

Owner at Boda Boutique, Deborah Fairclough, said: "We are absolutely delighted, firstly to be nominated for this award, but to actually win the North West region and then the North left me lost for words and overwhelmed.

"Such an achievement for our first year in business also helps us set up for a fantastic 2020. "

A spokesperson for the English Wedding Awards 2019 North said: "The winners represent the industry's gold standard, working tirelessly to meet the demands of the couples and their guests.

"The competition was really tough this year, but these champions are tried and tested specialists that know how to create a stress-free wedding experience, keeping the romance in the air. We would like to congratulate all finalists and winners for their amazing achievements."

The awards also helped to raise money for the Make A Wish Foundation UK which grants wishes to children and young people fighting life-threatening conditions.

County bids for extra government funding to support more children with complex needs

LANCASHIRE County Council is applying to the government for additional funding of £3.5m to be able to support more children with Special Educational Needs and Disability.

This is on top of the additional £6.5m that has already been committed by the county council, to provide much-needed provision for children and young people with complex needs and disabilities.

The extra funding will be used to provide more than 200 extra places across the county that are needed to meet the forecasted increased demand for places in the future.

The additional places will offer specialist support and tailored facilities, helping those with complex needs to succeed.

Following a series of recent talks with young people, parents, carers and schools, there are currently two options at an early stage of consideration where the specialist places could be provided.

These are:

• The relocation of Broadfield Specialist School in Oswaldtwistle to the site of Hameldon Community College in Burnley to create an additional 60 places

• Utilising space at Sir Tom Finney Community High School in Preston to create up to an additional 100 places.

These options are being considered as part of the local offer and will be submitted to the Department for Education as a proposal.

If this bid is approved, further detailed consideration will take place regarding the proposals, including a formal consultation and a meeting with parents to ensure that their views are considered.

Parents will be kept fully informed of any proposals which go forward and any issues raised will be presented to a future meeting of the county council's cabinet to make any relevant decisions.

Slimming World duo in great shape for festive party season

SUPER slimmers Lizzi Hatton and Dan Evans can look forward to the Christmas party season with new confidence this year after being voted the Ormskirk Toby Carvery Slimming World group's Miss Slinky and Mr Sleek 2019!

The pair were nominated for their titles by fellow members after losing 3st 10.5lb and 3 stone respectively.

Slimming World's annual Miss Slinky and Mr Sleek competitions recognise members who have transformed both inside and out by becoming healthier and happier, slimmer and more confident, and who look great in their Christmas party clothes.

The local duo will now be entered for the national awards with the chance to win £3,000 cash prizes.

Lizzie, 23, who has dropped from a dress size 18 to a size 12, said: "I've been looking forward to Christmas this year knowing that I now have the confidence to wear outfits that I couldn't or wouldn't have last year. And after winning the Miss Slinky title I've got even more to celebrate and this festive season will be extra-special."

Meanwhile 19-year-old Dan commented: "Being voted for by the other members of the group is really great because it's thanks to them and their support - and our consultant, Tina Whewell - that we've stayed committed to losing weight. As a man, joining a slimming group is quite nerve-wracking, even though both my mum and dad were both successful members, but I can honestly say it's one of the best decisions I've ever made."

In good shape for the Christmas party season... that's 'Miss Slinky' Lizzi and 'Mr Sleek' Dan.

Consultant Tina added: "Christmas is a time of year for getting dressed up and having a good time but a lot of my members have told me they'd often dread it because they felt uncomfortable and out of place at parties which is just so sad.

"This year I know Lizzie and Dan will feel completely different from previous years. I hope they'll be accepting every invitation they receive and showing off their fabulous new zest for life. They definitely live up to their new titles in my eyes."

Pantomime

Liverpool Empire

Peter Pan

Don't miss Liverpool's biggest and best family panto Peter Pan, at the Liverpool Empire Theatre this December! Take a fairytale flight to Neverland this Christmas in the hilarious, swashbuckling pantomime adventure as the Jolly Roger navigates the perilous high seas (and that's just the low tide of the Mersey) and throws anchor for another unmissable festive season at the Empire. With jaw-dropping flying and special effects, barrel-loads of laughter, a ship-full of magic and fairy dust and plenty of festive pantomime fun for all the family, hook your tickets today for the best value panto in town!

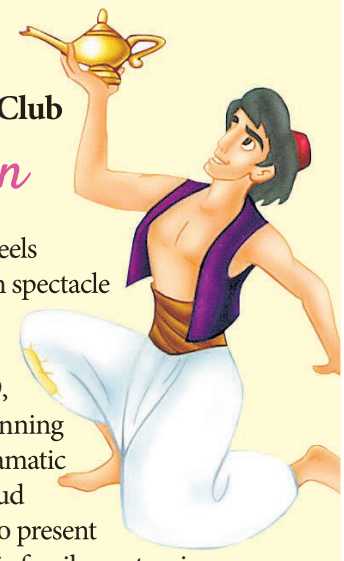
Pleasurefolk AMS

Sleeping Beauty

Sleeping Beauty – The pantomime of your dreams! Enjoy this fantastic traditional panto, Sleeping Beauty at Ormskirk Civic Hall this December. The award winning drama society, Pleasure Folk AMS bring the ever popular Sleeping Beauty panto to Ormskirk. The famous story tells of the poor sleeping beauty who is cursed by an evil fairy and falls asleep for 100 years, can she be saved? Bring all the family and experience a traditional panto in the fantastic market town of Ormskirk. Tickets are priced at just £8-£10.

All Souls Dramatic Club

Aladdin



Hot on the heels of their lavish spectacle 'Jack and the Beanstalk' in January 2019, the award winning All Souls Dramatic Club are proud and excited to present their next epic family pantomime, Aladdin. The show promises to be a 'genie-us' modern adaptation of this magical story fit for all the family. Book your tickets for the most spectacular show you'll see this year!

Southport Dramatic Club

Dick Whittington

Expect plenty of laughs, outrageous costumes, stunning staging and hilarious entertainment for all the family when you join our hero Dick Whittington (and his faithful feline pal) as he seeks fame, fortune and happiness to become Lord Mayor of London and overcome the evil King Rat. The perfect Christmas treat for young and old alike, this panto is paved with gold!

Waterloo & Crosby Theatre Co

Dick Whittington

Following last year's massively successful production of Cinderella, The Waterloo & Crosby Theatre Company are all set for their 38th Annual Family Pantomime – Dick Whittington. The Panto follows the traditional story of Dick Whittington and his quest to make his fortune in London. It includes all the usual well known characters that everyone knows and loves. Great fun for all the family, there will be the usual mix of well known songs to enjoy, alongside plenty of classic slap stick comedy that will have you laughing, cheering and booing right the way through the show.

84 Charing Cross Road was a real 'night to remember'

Review by Ron Ellis

84 Charing Cross Road
SDC at Southport Little Theatre

AT first glance of the synopsis, you might think this would not be the most enthralling of plays. A woman at one side of the stage reading out loud a letter, to which a man on the opposite side of the stage replies, doesn't sound exciting.

Plus six other actors wandering around with scarcely a word to say between them all evening. Hardly a fascinating scenario.

But how wrong you would be!

This was totally captivating theatre from the moment the curtain opened to reveal a stunning set (designed by Adrian Miles-Roberts and Paul Wilkinson) featuring a well-stocked, old-fashioned English bookshop alongside a cheap bedsit. The sound of the keys tapping away on the old-fashioned shop typewriter was so evocative of the period.

Helen Bennett was magnificent as Helene Hanff, an American lady living in a downmarket brownstone apartment in New York, writing to a bookseller in London to order works of literature.

Ted Bullen gave his usual excellent performance as Frank Doel, the manager of Marks & Co bookshop, who conducts a two-way conversation by post with his American customer over two decades as she gives him lists of the titles she is looking for.

Thus, as the months go by, we see the relationship between the two correspondents developing into friendship and even extending to the other members of the bookshop staff as Helene sends food parcels containing items unavailable in Britain.

Meanwhile, as the letters are being read out, the rest of the staff busy themselves doing jobs around the shop, making us feel we are in there with them amongst the bookshelves ourselves.

Corinna Davies and Alice McKillop played shop girls, Cecily and Megan, who also wrote to Helene. Jim Longworth, Ellis Coulter and Peter McKillop were the male members of staff and Sandra Unsworth doubled up as an American visitor and a later employee.

We are taken though all the big events of the period such as rationing after the Second World War; the death of George VI; the coronation of Elizabeth II; the tragedy of the Manchester United plane crash; Carnaby Street and The Beatles, all with a background of recorded newsreel broadcasts plus a soundtrack of music from the 1940's and 50's by artists like Billie Holliday, Judy Garland and Frank Sinatra.

Sitting in the theatre was like travelling in a time machine, with a soundtrack that captured all the atmosphere of what life was like in those post-war years.

Altogether a compelling production, with lots of humour along the way, expertly directed by Paul Wilkinson.

84 Charing Cross Road runs until this coming Saturday (November 30). Don't miss it. A night to remember.

Star Rating 9 out of 10. A poignant journey to post-war England.

Society rehearsing for pantomime

MAWDESLEY Amateur Dramatic Society present their annual pantomime at Mawdesley Village Hall on December 5, 6 and 7 at 7.30pm each evening with a matinee on Saturday 7 at 2pm.

Welcome to Pantoland - the place where all pantomimes come from every Christmas.

When Alex and his friends decide to read from a magical book one Christmas they get more than they bargained for. Especially when they accidentally summon Long John Silver!

When he sets out his plan to end pantomimes forever it's up to our heroes and their friends to save the day.

There is a licensed bar on the Friday and Saturday evening performances.

Tickets are £8 for adults, £4 for children and are available from Mawdesley Spar, New St. Mawdesley or online at www.MADSociety.co.uk

Popular Christmas ballet can be seen at Empire

A BALLET which is always popular in the run up to Christmas can be seen at the Liverpool Empire this week.

The English National Ballet's production of Tchaikovsky's The Nutcracker is opening at the venue tonight (Wednesday) and will be there until this Saturday (November 30).

The Nutcracker is considered to be one of the most popular and most often (staged) ballets in the world.

This production features more than 100 dancers and musicians who aim to bring the Nutcracker to life.

Audiences will be able to see beautiful dancing and sets and hear Tchaikovsky's famous score played live. The score includes the Dance of the Sugar-Plum Fairy, which is one of the most famous numbers in The Nutcracker.

The show is stopping off at the Liverpool Empire before it heads to the London Coliseum, where it is being staged over the Christmas period.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

ABRAM JUNE

Laurie and family would like to express their heartfelt thanks to all relatives, friends and neighbours for all the messages of condolence, prayers and donations to Alzheimer's Society. Thank you to the Rev'd Martin Abrams for his kind words and thoughtful service and thanks also to Moisters Funeral Directors for their dignified funeral arrangements.

BUCKTON CHRIS

Sue, Jamie and family would like to thank all their friends and neighbours for the kindness and sympathy shown after losing Chris. Also for the donations to Spinal Unit Action Group.
Our thanks to all the staff on Ward 20 at Aintree Hospital. A very special thank you to Dr Leahy, Michelle and Dr Allington for being there to support us through the last six months.
Our sincere thanks to Pete Goulding for such a moving service to celebrate Chris' life.
Many thanks to Alan, Chris, Sam and all the staff at Moisters who helped us through this most difficult time in a professional but, more importantly to us, a personal and caring manner.

EMPLOYMENT

Delivering quality services since 1888 to the people of Sefton and surrounding areas

Parkhaven Trust
Established 1888

Providing a range of services for older people and people with dementia, Parkhaven Trust has developed a reputation for delivering the services that people need since 1888.

From our original beginnings as the first residential service for people with epilepsy to today's innovative new service at The Beeches we have continued to develop and provide a range of services from at home care to end of life care. We work hard to maintain high standards and all of our services are inspected by the Care Quality Commission and are rated as "Good".

We encourage family involvement in our services and offer support to family members trying to make sense of the care system and difficult choices that have to be made. A unique feature of Parkhaven Trust is that we offer support from an initial diagnosis of dementia through to support for end of life care. We will be there supporting service users and their families.

We employ over 200 staff and are a major employer in the area employing staff as apprentices and staff who have worked with us for over 40 years. As an Investor in People Gold award employer we pride ourselves on recruiting and training excellent staff; it's the staff that make the difference to the care that we provide and they are proud to be part of the "Parkhaven Family"

If you are looking for a working arrangement that fits with your personal commitments why not join our staffing pool to work across our sites in Maghull. More information can be found on our website www.parkhaven.org.uk

For an application pack, please call our 24hr RECRUITMENT LINE on 0151 527 3667 or email: louisa.williams@parkhaven.org.uk

Parkhaven Trust is committed to equality of opportunity for all. Registered Charity Number 210163

The Trust would welcome applications from professional individuals who are looking for a long term career in Adult Social Care. With a proven record of reliability and excellence, you will be given the opportunity to develop skills and gain further qualifications at level 2 or 3 in Health and Social Care. Training will be provided to ensure that you are competent in your job role and develop confidence and skills to further your career. A clear pay structure ensures recognition for those who develop the skills and take responsibility for delivering the best standards of care for service users. You will be required to work across the Trust's Maghull based services to maintain staff levels and service quality at all times. The Trust offers competitive pay rates and pension contributions.

Salary: up to £17,654 per annum pro rata
Core hours 9.30am - 5.30pm - 35 hours per week

We have a vacancy at James Page Nursing Home, you will work flexibly as required as part of a small team within a busy kitchen, preparing and cooking high quality meals, using fresh produce and meeting any dietary requirements necessary, ensuring that the highest standards of hygiene and health and safety are maintained in the kitchen and dining rooms.

Your duties will include, managing the Safer Food Better Business system, as well as maintaining, equipment and supplies. You will manage and maintain the weekly agreed budget and supervise the kitchen assistants. QCF level 2 required.

Domestic Days - THE BEECHES

Salary up to £15,852 per annum, pro rata - Full or Part-time

Passionate about cleanliness? Undertaking both housekeeping and laundry duties you will play a key role in maintaining the highest standard of cleanliness and hygiene within the care home whilst ensuring a safe, comfortable environment at all times. Supporting the work of the care staff to create a sense of home, you will interact with service users and ensure that their dignity is respected.

Excellent benefits including: Competitive pay rates, Life Assurance employer contribution to Stakeholder Pension, sick pay, free parking, comprehensive induction, regular supervision and on-going training and development.

DEATHS

HUNT SANDRA

November 12th 2019

Mum, I thought my world was going to end after losing Frank, then I lost Dad last year and was totally broken! Somedays I felt like I couldn't go on, but with your help the fog started to lift and each day I felt that little bit stronger.
I know we didn't have that 'Mother/Daughter' relationship that I'd always longed for but I felt we were getting there slowly. But life can be so cruel, and just when I thought I'd 'found' you again, you were taken from me! I feel so cheated, so lost and so broken, I don't think my heart will ever mend. "Who am I going to do my puzzles with now?" :(

Sleep tight Mum

Love you always
Your Loving Daughter
Susie (Dotty)
xxxx

NAN

If roses grow in Heaven Lord,
then pick a bunch for us,
and place them in our Nan's arms
and tell her they're from us.

PRAYERS

PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN

Never known to fail.

O most beautiful flower of Mount Carmel, faithful Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in this necessity, O Star of the Sea, help me and show me herein you are my Mother, O Holy Mary Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succour me in my necessity.

(Make Request).

There are none that can withstand your powers. Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 Times).

Sweet Mother, I place this cause in your hands (3 times).

Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine.

This prayer must be said for three days and after that the request will be granted and the prayer must be published.

Le Mans '66 tells the story of how the Ford GT40 was created

You don't need to be a petrol-head to spot a jarring bit of chronology!

IF GOD really is in the details, then I'd suggest that the makers of Le Mans '66 aren't exactly fastidious churchgoers.

There's a scene in the new film – and feel free to skip through to the sports pages if spoiler alerts aren't your bag – in which the early Ford GT40 is described as being 'fresh from England' – but after those three seconds it's an all-American affair, making no mention of the fact the original racer was based on the Lola Mk6, dreamt up not in Detroit but, erm, sunny Huntingdon.

You don't even need to be a petrolhead to spot another rather jarring bit of chronology, either. Early on a rather well known publicity shot from Goldfinger of Sean Connery posing next to an Aston Martin DB5 is shown as part of a slide presentation at Ford HQ on what cool cars look like, conveniently forgetting that the very car Bond runs off the road in that film – a Ford Mustang – is unveiled for the first time much, much later on in the story!

There's also plenty on Ford's team orders at Le Mans, but an equally fascinating plot twist on Ferrari's part is omitted entirely; F1 star John Surtees was ditched from the driver line-up and quit working for the Italians altogether. But then I suspect you're not going to care one jot if you're planning on a cinema outing to see it, because it's a two-and-a-bit hours of genuinely enjoyable motoring history, neatly soundtracked by a couple of big block Ford V8s.

What really had me hooked was the amount of metal I wasn't expecting to see on screen; the opening scene explaining Carroll Shelby's sole Le Mans win at the helm of an Aston Martin DBR1 was wonderfully shot, but seeing the Porsche 356 and MGA being given the full-on Hollywood treatment in their own action sequences is worth the cinema ticket alone.

Most importantly, it feels believable. I remember watching a so-called race in 2013's The Man From UNCLE in which single-seaters and Aston DB4s were sharing the same track at Goodwood and staring at the screen in disbelief, but in this film the visit to Le Mans itself is bob on. The track actually looks like the one I camped at last year for the Le Mans Classic, and the scenes inside the main complex on the start/finish straight even showed the never-ending balcony walkways that I'd traipsed while heading to and from its press office. Matt Damon does a dab hand of nailing the late Carroll Shelby's Texan drawl too, and Batman – sorry, Christian Bale – isn't half bad as Midlands race ace Ken Miles either.

I know that the Ford vs Ferrari war to win at Le Mans is well documented, but I do reckon that Le Mans '66 is fast-tracked to a spot on the petrolhead living room shelf next to Rush, Ronin and Bullitt when it eventually comes out on DVD.

If you haven't seen it already, then I'd thoroughly recommend it.

Just make sure you conveniently forget the first half of this week's column if you do…

Restyled version of Mitsubishi's smallest model will go on sale in the UK in 2020

AN UPDATED and restyled version of Mitsubishi's smallest model will go on sale across the North West early next year.

The Mirage is being given a new front end which gives it a similar look to larger models in the Japanese manufacturer's range, and inside there's a new seven-inch touchscreen system designed to pair up easily with your smartphone.

UK prices for the updated model haven't been confirmed yet but expect them to be similar to the current Mirage, which starts at £9,999.

Right: Mitsubishi's updated Mirage model

Styling borrows from Czech carmakers

Expect the new Skoda Octavia to go on sale early next year

SKODA has just unveiled the fourth generation version of its big-selling Octavia model.

It's a little larger than the outgoing model, and the styling, particularly at the front, borrows a lot from the Czech carmakers off-road offerings, but otherwise it's business as usual, with the new car available as both a hatchback and estate, and with a range of petrol, turbodiesel and now hybrid powerplants on offer.

New innovations include a new shift-by-wire transmission, which relays your choice of gear to the transmission electronically, and the option of a head-up display system for the very first time.

Burscough on the road for next four league fixtures

BURSCOUGH'S next four league matches are away from home as the Linnets face a tough task to move away from the relegation place.

The Linnets remain one point above relegation after last Saturday's defeat against 1874 Northwich.

Thankfully for the Linnets, relegation rivals Litherland Remyca also lost so the bottom of the table remains as it was before last weekend's matches.

Skelmersdale are just two points from the same fate so there is plenty at stake for them as well.

On Saturday, Skelmersdale face what on paper is the more difficult game at Winsford United as Burscough travel down the M65 to play Padiham.

Winsford are one of the league's form teams recently and have moved up the table from the lower reaches in an excellent run of form that includes a 6-0 win over Burscough.

Saturday though saw Winsford lose 2-0 at Charnock Richard.

The mid Cheshire side play at a former greyhound stadium and their games bring goals, scoring 31 league goals this season but conceding 27, so it will likely be an entertaining encounter on Saturday and they are vulnerable.

Burscough recently lost at home to Padiham but revenge in East Lancashire is not an impossible ask.

Padiham sit just two points above the Linnets and they have lost four consecutive games, including 2-1 in their local derby at Longridge Town on Saturday.

Burscough won 3-2 in the away meeting last season and will be hoping to repeat the act. Victory would put Burscough above Padiham and ease those worries a great deal.

Skelmersdale are without a midweek game next week, but Burscough go to East Lancashire again, making a first ever league visit to Longridge Town on Wednesday, December 4, kick off 7.45.

Longridge are second in the Premier Division table, four points behind 1874 Northwich with two games in hand.

Next week (Saturday, December 7) Skelmersdale make a first ever trip to Longridge themselves, while Burscough make it a hat-trick of East Lancashire encounters when they play away Barnoldswick Town. Both are 3pm kick offs.

Skem throw away two goal lead to come away empty handed

Defence leaks four goals in second half to undo stunning start

Skelmersdale United 2
Northwich Victoria 4

SKELMERSDALE United threw away a two goal lead after a stunning first half performance was undone when they conceded four in the second period, writes Simon Driscoll.

Ryan Winder tried his luck from distance for Vics and narrowly missed the target before United had a great chance after a clever one-two between Will Dunne and Emini Adegbenro saw the former hit over from close range.

Three minutes later, United opened the scoring with a cross from Jack Grimshaw cannoning off Vics captain Kieron Kenny past Daniel Taberner for 1-0.

Vics response was instant with Winder's close range volley saved by Barnes and the rebound from Dorney blocked superbly by United captain Jordan Tyrer on the goal-line. Richard Brodie headed past the post after latching onto Cameron Glennon's cross before Brandon Barski's angled effort found the arms of Barnes.

United doubled their advantage on 36 minutes as Glennon picked out Adgebenro who after evading Michael Wilson advanced on goal and slotted past Taberner from a tight angle for 2-0.

The visitors went achingly close to cutting the gap as Kenny headed across goal past the far post. Clever wing play from Regan Jarrett saw him cross for Dunne who needed just a touch to beat Taberner but the pass avoided them both in what was the final chance of the half.

Vics cut the gap within two minutes of the restart as Kevin Pollard picked out Henderson who slotted past Barnes for 2-1.

Adgebenro finishes for Skem's second of the game

The visitors could have drawn level two minutes later as Henderson returned the favour to Pollard who could only find the grasp of Barnes and minutes later he fired over the target.

Matthew Clarke swept an effort over the bar before Vics levelled on 62 minutes, Barski's low cross found the head of Dorney whose effort cannoned against the post and went into the net off Henderson for 2-2.

The turnaround was complete on 77 minutes as a through pass to Henderson saw him beat the offside trap and round Barnes to slot in for his hat-trick and give Vics the lead at 3-2.

Burns looked to increase the lead further as he evaded two tackles before firing at Barnes who did well minutes later to deny the forward from close range.

The Vics number nine finally got the chance to win the battle as he was felled by Tyrer and slotted the resulting penalty past Barnes to make it 4-2 in added time.

The final whistle seconds later saw Vics celebrate a stunning comeback while United were left to reflect on a two-goal interval lead being overturned in a mixed second half.

Linnets lose to league leaders despite improved defensive display

Burscough 0
1874 Northwich 2

BURSCOUGH were beaten by the league leaders but put in a spirited performance to give them confidence for the rest of the season.

The Linnets are struggling to avoid relegation but put in a good performance and against less opposition could well have picked up some vital points.

It could easily have been a flying start for the Linnets when Joe Fielding put a tremendous opportunity wide of the post.

You get punished for missing chances in football and in the seventh minute Northwich exacted punitive damage.

Top scorer Scott McGowan headed home at the far post from an excellent Callum Gardner cross.

1874 Northwich are top of the league for a reason. They are a good team and after getting their noses in front they took control for a while, but to Burscough's credit they were showing plenty of tenacity and hanging on well.

For all the Northwich possession Burscough were having their moments, and it required a good clearance by Northwich defender Ryan Mitchell to cut out the threat from a 15th minute free-kick.

In the 27th minute Northwich went very close to making it 2-0, right-back Mike Koral put a thunderous effort against the Burscough crossbar.

Towards half-time Northwich started to turn the screw on Burscough, but again the home team fended off successive corners, then a ball went right across the face of the Burscough goal, but the Linnets sighed with relief.

Having had no luck, there was an element of luck about 1874's second goal on 40 minutes. Former Skelmersdale and Prescot player Harry Cain did well down the wing, he pulled the ball back to midfielder Jake Parker, whose shot took a deflection sending the ball looping over Linnets goalkeeper Dave Jones to double the Northwich lead.

After a decent start to the second-half by Burscough, Northwich went back onto the offensive. Cain went close then Matt Woolley was kept at bay by another top drawer save by Jones, tipping a point blank header over the crossbar.

Mitchell then put a header over the crossbar before Jones made excellent saves from Sam Hare and Woolley.

Jones arguably made his best save nine minutes from the end preventing Parker's powerful drive making it three.

It would be unfair to give the impression that Northwich were lucky. They could actually have won by more, but the fact that they didn't is a boost to Burscough and shows that despite their perilous position in second to bottom spot in the table they have got fighting qualities that give them every chance of staying up at the end of April.
